Weekly Newsletter

Week ending Friday 16th September 2022

This week at Bromstone some of the children have been choosing to remember the Queen in different ways. As a school we decided that this would be led by the children. Below are some of the lovely pieces of work that the children created in memory of Her Majesty The Queen.

As you will be aware there will be a bank holiday for the State Funeral of Queen Elizabeth II.

We're working towards Artsmark Awarded by Arts Council England

On Tuesday 20th September we will be welcoming our new Year R children full time. The children have shown lots of enthusiasm in joining Bromstone and we are already very proud of them.

As was mentioned in last week's newsletter, there is a website page for each year group on the Bromstone website. This page is replacing the "paper" curriculum newsletter that used to be sent out at the beginning of each term. It contains information about this term's learning and other key dates and events to be aware of. There is also a list of related activities that you and your children may want to have a go at, at home! This term, for the whole school, our theme is "What is an adventure?"

Please follow this link to the correct website page and then click on your child's year group... Class Pages | Bromstone Primary School \(bromstoneschool.com\)

Attendance Badges

With the disruption of Covid now (hopefully) in the past, we will be bringing back termly 100% attendance badges for children who have attended every day of that term. Understandably, children will get ill from time to time, so each term they get a fresh start to achieve their badge. We look forward to celebrating excellent attendance!
