Weekly Newsletter

Week ending Friday 17th June 2022

It's been a very hot week with lots of fun activities and learning at Bromstone!

Year 5, and Pevensey class from year 6, have been to Wingham this week. Year 6 are busy practicing for their end of year production, the whole school are busy practicing for Sports Day and our wonderful choir have been performing at Broadstairs Bandstand today, taking part in the Dickens Festival.

During the forth-coming weeks your child's new teacher will be "popping down" to their new classes. They will spend a short amount of time each week getting to know the children before they have their main transition day on July 7th. We have added this as an additional element to transition across the whole school because some children will find it easier to move to a new class if they have met their new teacher a number of times in the comfort of their own familiar environment.

Upcoming Events

There will be class photos on Monday 20th June.

Parents evenings are next week. On Tuesday school will finish at 2pm. Please collect your youngest child first. There will be no after school extra-curricular clubs on this day.
