Dear Families

NEU Strike Action – 1st February 2023

As you will all be aware, the National Education Union (NEU) has announced their teachers will strike over pay in England and Wales on a few days in February and March 2023. The strike is happening because of a national dispute between the unions and the government over pay and funding.

The dates for action in our area are:

- 1st February 2023
- 2nd March 2023
- 15th March 2023
- 16th March 2023

Due to the number of NEU members deciding to support this strike, we are unable to safely open the school, and therefore we will be closed to all pupils on Wednesday 1st February 2023.

You will find home learning ideas and links available here on our website: <https://bromstone-primary-school.secure-primariesite.net/home-learning-10/>. We will also be sending home a copy of our home learning ideas for this term.

If you are entitled to Free School Meals, we will be sending further information shortly regarding a food package for your child.

We have not taken this decision lightly and understand that you may find this situation frustrating. However, we remain committed to providing a safe and secure environment for our pupils, and feel that we would be unable to provide safe supervision with the staff we have available.

We are working closely with our staff union representatives to keep up to date with the situation, and will keep you updated with the other dates in March as soon as we are aware of the staffing levels.

Kind regards

Emma Ribbans & Toni Moon
Heads of School
