

Why do rights exist? KS1

Home Learning Ideas

1. Draw a picture of yourself and label it with things that make you special.
2. Create a poster about our school values CHECKER (you can find this on our website).
3. We are also learning why we need to explore? Draw or write about why you think we need to explore.
4. Can you use the Internet to explore more about rights... record what you find out.

Here's a great place to start bbc bitesize

5. Create your own school, you could use your toys; Lego or your teddies, paint or write about what you feel children should have at school!
6. Children need the right to play... can you take a photo of your favourite things to play, board games, football, etc.
7. What is the most important right? Can you tell someone and why you think that?
8. We all have the right to a family life. Can you write, draw or take a photo of something you love to do with your family.
9. Do animals have rights? Write a list of the rights you feel animals should have.
10. Rights help us and keep us safe. Can you think of someone special that has helped you? Can you make them a card to say thank you?
